

Sylvia Lang Joins Owen Media as Office Manager

SEATTLE - September 5, 2003

Owen Media, Inc., a Seattle-based high tech public relations agency, today announced that Sylvia Lang joined the agency as office manager.

"Sylvia brings the discipline and focus the company needs to keep operations running smoothly," said Paul Owen, Owen Media president. "But she's also down to earth and recognizes that building relationships of trust with clients, vendors and co-workers takes more than task management."

Prior to joining Owen Media's in-house team, Lang worked for Fidelity Investments for three years and a career consulting firm for two. In her personal time, Lang enjoys hiking, camping, and playing the viola and the bass.

Owen Media provides public relations consulting to high-tech companies. Owen Media's clients include Cray, Lexmark, AccessVia, Tideworks, Lux and the InfiniBand Trade Association.

###